750 years (or thereabouts) of Morphany Hall

Wednesday 22 January - Lewis Carroll Centre

Tea and chat at 7pm, talk starting promptly at 7.30pm

There has been a house at Morphany for hundreds of years. But just how long? When was this half timbered hall built? What's there now? Who lived there? What did they do? Sue has been researching its history, alongside the very early history of the parish. There's lots to learn!

Come along and join us - we'd love to see you.

Tea and cake as usual!
